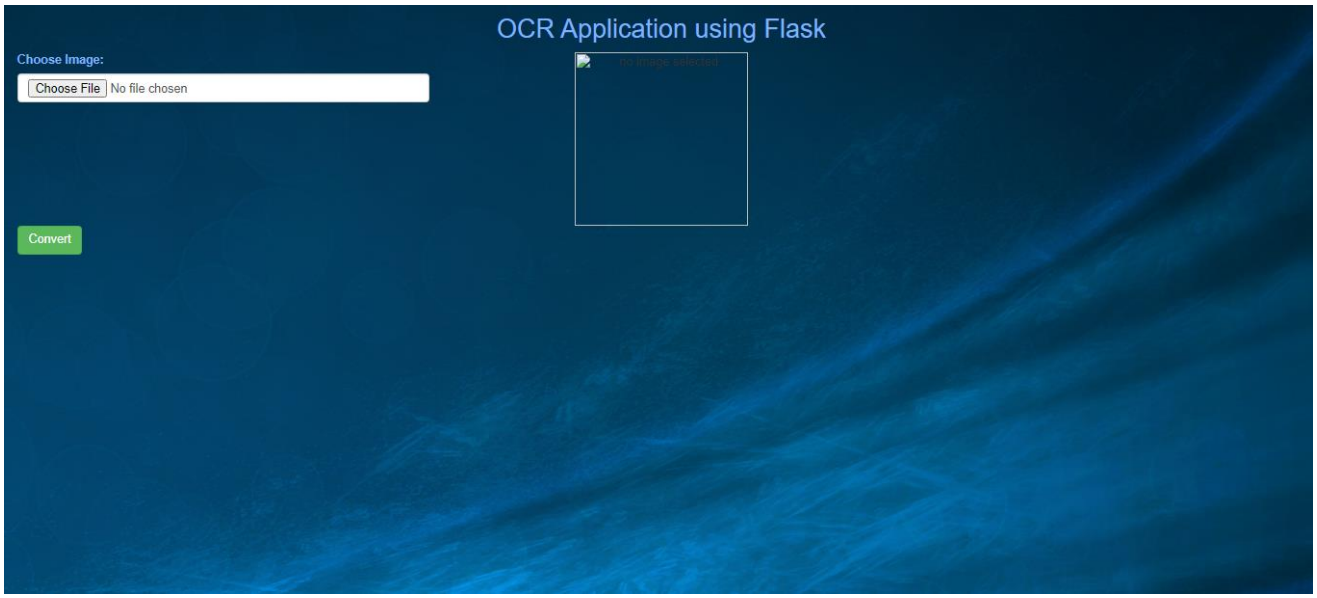
Image to Text Converter

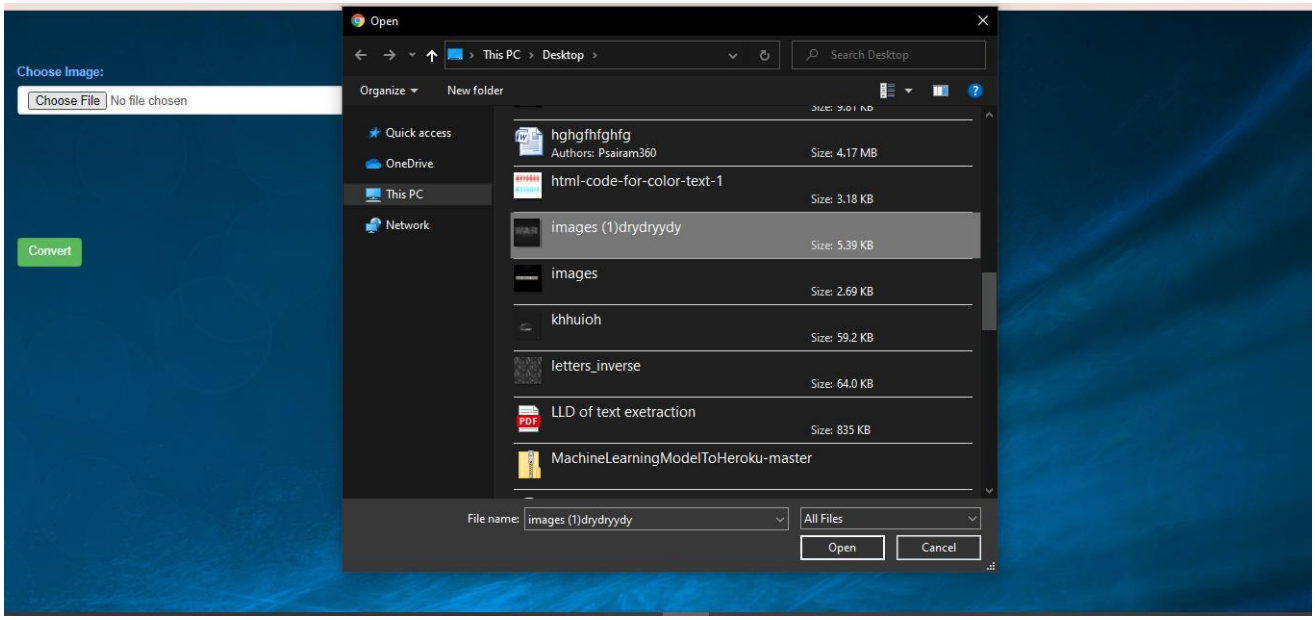
Wireframe Documentation

Homepage

1. First thing in this web application is Homepage which will ask for User Inputs like (Choose file) whether he/she wants to extract text from a image.



2. The User will encounter with a pop-up window asking to select an image after clicking Choose file button.



3 . After selecting particular image by User, the chosen input image will be shown in home page. A sample view of Homepage showing chosen image is given below:

The Convert button in Homepage is can be used for to extract text in a chosen image.

About Resultpage

After clicking Convert button we will be forwarded to Result page, where we can see our extracted text from chosen image.

4. After clicking Download button from Result page, we can download extracted text from chosen image into our local system.